

A Proposal for an Absolutely
Necessary & Crucial Twenty-Eighth
Amendment to the U.S. Constitution
Which Would Restore Prayer to the Public Schools of America

"If the people of any state decide to give the children in their public schools the opportunity to participate in group prayer to Honor God from whence all our blessings flow, and to seek additional blessings in the area of national defense, or whatever other areas the people choose to specify, at times and in the manners prescribed by their respective State Legislatures, nothing in this (federal) Constitution shall be construed to prohibit, limit, or proscribe this activity in any manner whatsoever."
